

The International Reggae and World Music Awards (IRAWMA) returns to Jamaica for its 37th Annual celebration to be held at the Pegasus Hotel.

On November 14th through the 20th, Ephraim Martin, President of Martin's International and Founder and President of IRAWMA, along with his Director of Marketing, Drew Barrett will be in Jamaica for an onsite inspection, to meet with prospective partners and to officially kick off the 2018 nominations for music experts in the reggae and world music industry to start their selection.

Early this year, the 36th IRAWMA was combined with the 37th Annual Chicago Music Awards (CMA) and was televised on NBC TV, following "Saturday Night Live". Click to watch <https://youtu.be/l1VqC5qi73I>

The 2019, 38th Chicago Music Awards will be held on February 17, 2019 at the University of Chicago - Logan Center for the Arts.

In celebration of "TheReggae50", fifty years of reggae from 1968/69 to present, the 37th IRAWMA heads to Jamaica for the fourth time in its 37 year history; not just to honor the best of 2018, but to salute and honor some of reggae's foundation members, who are still, "Making A Difference" in the world of reggae.

Since 1982, for thirty-seven (37) consecutive years, Ephraim Martin, (nonprofit organization) Martin's International has been honoring the best of the reggae and world music industry. Visit www.irawma.com for more information.

For further information email: irawmasponsor@gmail.com, globodrew@gmail.com or call 312/719-6181 (straight or via WhatsApp).